

GDP per capita in 1950 and 2016

GDP per capita is expressed in international-$. This means it is adjusted for price changes over time (inflation) and for price differences between countries. The increase or decrease between 1950 and 2016 is shown below the country name.

